

There is something for every level of your charity management journey:

Moving into Management

- It's Murder in Management
- Frameworks for Feedback
- Time Management for Managers

Organisational Management

- Communication, Conversation and Conflict
- What does Success Look Like?
- Creating the Organisational Culture you Want

Managing for Managers

- Influencing up the Line
- Coaching for Successful Performance
- Manage with Confidence

Managing your Team

- Delegation
- Developing the People you Manage
- Team Dynamics: understanding your team to get the best from them

Morning plenary

Policies and Politics:

We will talk about the current state of politics and sector policies and ask the question - What can we learn from current affairs, to be better managers now and in the future?

*Facilitator: Jay Kennedy,
Director of Research and Policy at DSC*

Afternoon plenary

Case Study:

Join this informal yet inspirational talk that just proves our organisations are fabulous and we CAN turn them around even in the hardest of times.

*Facilitator: Cathy Shimmin,
Senior Training Consultant at DSC*

Closing plenary

Inspirational Talk:

Debra Allcock Tyler has over 30 years management and leadership experience, in both the private and third sector. In typical Debra style, hear her talk honestly & openly about her challenges, failures and successes.

Speaker: Debra Allcock Tyler, CEO at DSC

Management

CONFERENCE 2019

Bringing out the best in others

Tuesday 26 November
London

Book now at: www.dsc.org.uk/

managementconference

dsc

directory of social change

Book now at: www.dsc.org.uk/

managementconference

Good management is the driving force behind your organisation

A good manager empowers their staff to feel fulfilled in their role and creates an everlasting impact inside and outside their organisation.

From the moment your management journey begins, challenges of all levels will present themselves and with the right knowledge you will overcome them.

This conference will provide you with tools, tips and expertise, plus the know-how to apply them successfully.

This conference is a must for charity managers, both experienced and new

- From organisational management to team culture, sessions cover all the essentials.
- As well as learning from sector leaders, dive into this great networking opportunity with managers going through exactly what you are.
- Three plenaries will take place, led by those who have been there, done that, guaranteed to provide food for thought.
- Whether you're just beginning or want to develop your management style, there's something for you.

Price Bands

	Early Bird Rate (closes 30 Sep)	Standard Price
Band A:	£149	£199
Band B:	£249	£299
Band C:	£349	£399

Book now at: www.dsc.org.uk/

managementconference

- Understand your role
- Reflect on, and develop your style
- Learn to engage and motivate your team
- Build your confidence